

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

FRIDAY, 8th April 2005

Collegium Novum UJ, Gołębia 24, room 30

10.00 - 11.30

Anamaria IUGA "The best room" in Salistea de Sus and in leud, Maramures. University of Bucharest, Romania

Ágnes SZABÓ Folk Singing and Identity. Roles and Attitudes. Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary

Ioan PITURESCU Dynamics of identity within a gipsy musicians village. University of Bucharest, Romania

11.30 - 11.45 coffee break

11.45 - 12.45

Nataša VISOČNIK Identity processes in Japan. University of Ljubljana, Slovenia

Yuko KAMBARA The function of "Czechoslovakism": Question about Slovak national identity. Comenius University, Slovak Republic

12.45 - 14.00 dinner break

14.00 - 15.30

Codruta CUCEU The Religious Roots of Ethnic Identity. Jews as Minority in Transylvania (Romania). Babeş-Bolyai University, Romania

Terézia NAGY Conversion and (re)construction of identity converts in a Hungarian Islam fellowship. Corvinus University of Budapest, Hungary

Laura ALICU The Greek-Catholic Identity in Early Post-Communist Romania. Babeş-Bolyai University, Romania

15.30 - 15.45 coffee break

15.45 - 16.45

Martin HRIBEK The Goddess Mother India: An Avatar of Modernity. Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic

Arnold TÓTH Religious and ethnic identity of the Rusin minority in the 18-20th centuries in Görömböly, north-eastern Hungary. Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary

Club Łubu-Dubu, Wielopole 15

18.30 19.30

Przemysław GĘBALA Metro vs. macho - looking for a modern man. Jagiellonian University, Poland

SATURDAY, 9th April 2005

Centrum Kongresowe UJ, Przegorzaly, Assembly hall
10.30 - 12.00

Michaela FERENCOVÁ Identification, commemoration and the policy of local institutions. Slovak Academy of Sciences, Slovak Republic

Lenka JUHÁSOVÁ Ethnostereotypes among Slovaks in Bulgaria. Slovak Academy of Sciences, Slovak Republic

Kajetana FIDLER Being Buddhist in Most Catholic European Country - Religious Identity of Polish Buddhists. Jagiellonian University, Poland

12.00 - 12.15 coffee break

12.15 - 14.15

Zvonko TANESKI The post-literary identity in „Yugo-Slovakia“ Comenius University in Bratislava, Slovak Republic

Joanna KRAWCZYK Postcolonial Identity in Indian-British Literature. Warsaw University, Poland

Patrik ORIEŠEK Crisis of identity in Slovak literature of the third millennium cases of R.Bielik, T.Horvath and P.Macsovszky. Slovak Academy of Sciences, Slovak Republic

Adriana CELIŃSKA Post-modern advantages of sex-identity problems in Michel Houellebecq's "The Elementary particles". Jagiellonian University, Poland

14.15 - 15.00 dinner break

15.00 - 16.00

Edit FELFÖLDI Ethnic Identity of Germans in Eastern Hungary in the Light of Life Histories. University of Szeged, Hungary

Helena DEMBSKY Integration of refugees and guest workers from Bosnia and Herzegovina in Berlin. Differences and similarities in their identities. University of Ljubljana, Slovenia

Pub Lokator, Krakowska 10 (entry from Meiselsa street)
18.00 - 19.30

Karolina KWIECIEŃ Religions of Buryats. Jagiellonian University, Poland

Marek HAVLIČEK Profiling of contemporary identification of inhabitants of the Buryatian republic within the Russian Federation. Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic

Andrzej DYBCZAK Generation without mothers and fathers. Portrait of Evenks from Tutonchany village. Jagiellonian University, Poland

20.00 -

DJ POTKAN performance
ethno, world music, dub, Bollywood, ethno-electronic fusions, roots folklore, ethno-ambient and others

SUNDAY, 10th April 2005

Collegium Novum UJ, Gołębia 24, room 30

10.00 - 11.00

Leila JYLHÄNKANGAS Pain should be alleviated but euthanasia is a more difficult question. Producing Religious Identity through Religion-Specific Knowledge of Acceptable Ways of Dying. University of Turku, Finland

Radmila LORENCOVA Identity, grief and burial rituals. Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic

11.00 - 11.15 coffee break

11.15 - 12.45

Jitka SLEZÁKOVÁ The ethnic minority identity of Vietnamese in the Czech Republic. Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic

Natalia KUCZYŃSKA An ignored community. The everyday life of Mongolians living in Poland. Warsaw University, Poland

Zdeněk NEBŘENSKÝ Traditions and Identities in Multicultural Society. Chinese-American Representations of the Past. Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic

12.45 - 13.00 coffee break

13.00 - 14.00

Anna BOGATYŃSKA Some problems of mixed marriages' cultural adaptation based on the research in Poland. Jagiellonian University, Poland

Monika BANCANSKA Sports and ethnicity. Comenius University, Slovak Republic

CONFERENCE HONORARY PATRONAGE:

Professor Mariola FLIS
Vice-Dean of Faculty of Philosophy, Jagiellonian University

Professor Zofia FABIĄSKA
Vice-Dean of Faculty of History, Jagiellonian University

CONFERENCE SCIENTIFIC PATRONAGE:

Professor Czesław ROBOTYCKI
Director of the Institute of Ethnology and Culture Anthropology, Jagiellonian University

Professor Andrzej SZYJEWSKI
Vice-Director of the Institute of Study of Religion, Jagiellonian University

ORGANIZERS:

Kajetana FIDLER (kajetana@poczta.fm)
Scientific Society of Study of Religion Students, Jagiellonian University

Adriana CELIŃSKA (aduucha@o2.pl)
Scientific Society of Ethnology Students, Jagiellonian University

QUESTION OF IDENTITY REELIGION - TRADITION - MODERNITY INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR STUDENTS AND POSTGRADUATES

8-10th April 2005